

Summary of Enrollment, Tier Assignment, & Incentive Pay

Washington State Department of Labor & Industries
Workers' Compensation Services

Orthopedic and Neurological Surgeon Quality Pilot

	Quality Indicator	Expectation	Incentive Pay Threshold
REQUIRED for Incentive pay	Activity Prescription Form (APF)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Non-surgical = 1 APF at initial visit Surgical = minimum of 2 APFs (1 initial visit, 1 post-surgery) 	85% of injured workers with expected # of APFs completed & billed
	Intensive rehabilitation plan	Indicate "Worker progress" and "Current rehab" on each APF	85% of APFs reviewed by L&I pilot team
	Dispense as written (DAW) prescriptions	Prescribe preferred drugs or allow appropriate substitution	<10% DAW prescriptions (non-preferred drugs)
	Timely access to service	Injured worker seen by a specialist within 7 business days of referral	70% of injured workers seen in 7 days
	Surgery within 3 weeks	Provide surgery within 21 days of claim manager authorization	80% of injured workers have surgery in 21 days
	Occupational Health Continuing Education	Participate in occupational health training annually	100% completed

Tier	Required Quality Indicator Thresholds Met	Incentive Pay (1071M)
1	APF + Int. rehab plan + DAW	$51.69
2	Tier 1 required indicators + 1 or 2 additional	$77.53
3	All 6 indicators	$103.37

Bill Incentive pay at the same time as each APF (1069M) = $49.18 extra
Note: APF payable to all pilot providers, even those who lose incentive pay after failing to meet Tier 1 requirements for 3 consecutive measurement cycles.

*Initial data collection period may be for fewer than 6 months of participation, depending on provider's pilot enrollment date.

For more information on the pilot, contact the Pilot Team at (360) 902-6060 or ONSQualityPilot@Lni.wa.gov